Notes from the Courts.

Henry E. Barnett and wife yesterday sold to Charles J. Geliette the bartler shop outfit at the Shoreham for $1,169.99. outfit at the Shoreham for $1.169.99, Mr. J. C. Charsey, for the contestants of the will of the late Maria Cole, yesterday asked the court of appeals for a mandamas to compel Judge Bradley to sign a bill of exceptions. Mr. A. S. Worthington, for the defense, said he hoped an order to print would be made and a later day be set for hearing. It was so agreed, and April 16 was named. Judge Bradley holds that the time for signing the bill had expited before it was presented.

Two suits of B. Alfred Soner agrainet Two suits of B. Alfred Soper against William A. Vaughn and others to enforce mechanics' liens were dismissed yes-terday by Judge Cox.

To Set Aside an Assignment. Charles E. Hoover yesterday sucd to set aside the assignment to G. H. Walker by Charles E. Gibbs, of Wormley's Hotel. made last fail. He has a judgment made last fait. He has a pagment against Mr. Gibbs for $1,183.57, and wants has equity in lot A, square 199, sold to satisfy the claim. He says the assignment is invalid because it does not parport to convey all his property and because it does not safficiently set forth what real estate it is intended to transfer. He sais that it be decreed unt to mass real. He asks that it be decreed not to pass real estate and that it be declared null.
